Nouvelle France Tour 2018 Itinerary

Day 1-After meeting up with cousins and driving to Quebec, we'll stop by the Palace Royal Hotel to drop off our luggage. Then we'll take a leisurely stroll past the Parliament Building to the Grande Allée where we'll enjoy a relaxing meal at Le Grand Café.

Day 2-We begin the day with a tour of Old Quebec led by our knowledgeable guide. After a visit to the Plains of Abraham, we will participate in a walking tour (weather permitting) from the Hotel Frontenac to the Place Royale, learning the history along the way. After a delicious lunch at the nearby Côtes-à-Côtes Restaurant, you can enjoy the rest of your day exploring the shops, eateries, and historic sites of this grand old city before the crowds of the festival arrive.

Day 3-Today we spend the entire day on the Île d'Orléans exploring the genealogy and history of our ancestors. Tours will include a visit to the Maison de nos Aïeux (House of our Ancestors) which provides publications of research into the founding families of the island. A stop at the Maison Drouin takes us back to an earlier time where we'll see how our ancestors lived in 1730.

We will visit all six parishes on the island with a chance to tour the ancienne église de Saint-Pierre, an old stone church built between 1717 and 1719 and the oldest church in Quebec that has been preserved. After a traditional French-Canadian meal, full of surprises, at L'En Tailleur, we will continue our tour of the island, searching for the monuments which indicate the home plots of the founders. Along the way, you'll have the chance to enjoy flavors from the island: maple, cheese, and chocolate. We'll end our jam-packed day with a wine-tasting. Here you may choose a bottle to take with you to dinner the next evening.

Day 4-Our exploration of the Côte de Beaupré begins with an early stop at the Ste-Anne-de-Beaupré shrine and its beautiful Immaculate Conception chapel. Then experience nature and adventure at Canyon Ste-Anne. You can hike or enjoy a ride over the falls on the Air Canyon (additional cost). We will then visit Chez Marie and the outdoor bread oven. Discover more about your early families and settlement in the area at the Interpretation Center of the Côte de Beaupré. Bring your bottle of wine from Île d'Orléans to dinner at Casa Grecque. You can walk off your meal with a short tour of Beauport.

Day 5-Today we divide into two groups. Group 1 consists of the researchers. We will spend the day at the National Archives on the Laval University campus. After a tour of the facility, you may stay there or move back and forth between the Archives and the library of the Société de Généalogie de Québec, located in the same building. Group 2 has a free day to explore Quebec. You may choose to take an optional cruise on the St. Lawrence River, visit the Marché du Vieux-Port (the market located in the Old Port area), or enjoy the opening of the New France Festival. Both groups will get together for a relaxing dinner at Le Café de Paris, followed by the festival's opening parade.

Day 6-Our morning begins in Wendake where we'll visit the Huron-Wendat museum, the National Longhouse, Notre-Dame-de-Lorette Mission, the Kabir Kouba Falls, and the Nation's fresco. After lunch, there will be a guided tour of Charlesbourg's Trait-Carré, the only remaining star-shaped village in North America, and the Moulin des Jésuites, an old mill where we'll learn the history of our ancestral village. We then return to Old Quebec to enjoy the Nouvelle France Festival.

Day 7-We begin the morning enjoying the breathtaking views of Montmorency Falls. Explore by foot or cable car. For the adventurous, there is a 300-meter zipline over the cove of the falls (additional cost). We then return to the city to enjoy the Nouvelle France Festival. Be sure to visit the family booths for your ancestral surnames scattered throughout Old Quebec. For our farewell dinner, we'll meet at Aux Anciens Canadiens, located in the oldest house in Quebec (built 1675-6), to enjoy old-fashioned Quebec cuisine.

Day 8-We return home tired but happy to have walked in the footsteps of our French-Canadian ancestors!
